THE GUESTS of the Van der Valk Hotel in Hildesheim are envied because as soon as they leave the house they are on one of the most historic venues in northern Germany. Hildesheim is shown here at its best. The impressive overall picture of the market place but also contributes to the hotel with its heritage facade. Whoever enters the Van der Valk Hotel will be delighted by its charm and personality. The highlights of the city include the UNESCO World Heritage St. Mary's Cathedral with the 1.000-year-old rose bush, and the St. Michael's Church. The Roemer- and Pelizaeus-Museum is one of the most important for Egypt and ancient Peruvian collections in Europe. Hildesheim is located 30 km south of Hanover.

The A7 motorway and ICE train station guarantee excellent connectivity.
